A Year Lost, A Life Gained

by author Suzanne Dalton

Thursday, August 23, 5:30 pm

Mills Community House-Upper Level

Home of Benzononia Public Library

891 Michigan Ave., Benzononia, MI 49616

Suzanne Dalton has accomplished much in her life-she is an artist, writer, actor, web designer, and program manager.

The one undertaking for which she did not sign-up was breast cancer. In her new memoir, A Year Lost, A Life Gained: Fighting Breast Cancer With Wit, Humor, Friends and a Perky Poodle, humor guides Suzanne through difficult decisions about treatments, surgeries, and reconstruction. Her story, told through witty letters to friends, includes a party before surgery, a zany poodle, and refusal to let cancer define her.

A YEAR LOST, A LIFE GAINED

This memoir is a beautifully-told story and a guide to aid anyone diagnosed with a life-threatening medical event whether they've completed the journey or are just embarking upon the path.

No charge for event, just come and enjoy.

Sponsored by Friends of BPL.

Brent Leines: Volunteers-Giving a Little Extra

Our library is an important cultural center available to all. To help support the library, I work with the Friends of Benzonia Public Library, providing a community service by receiving donated books, DVDs, CDs, and puzzles to sell at nominal prices to benefit the Friends of BPL. Several sales occur during the year plus an ongoing sale, the "Corner Book Shoppe" in the library featuring many of the best items.

I received a B.A. in History from the University of Minnesota. My career was in distribution management. I am married to Michelle, the Assistant Library Director. After living in Nevada for 32 years, we retired and moved to Benzonia, Michelle's hometown.

The Friends of BPL are delighted to have Brent "work his magic" as he sorts, cleans, organizes, packs, and moves thousands of books, DVDs, CDs, and puzzles through the donation pipeline.

His efforts have dramatically improved the quality of our sales, increasing revenue which is used to benefit the Benzonia Public Library.
